The Business Hub is now opening up for hot desking - wow so exciting

- At the moment people can book in for the day as long as there is not a meeting being held.
- Within the next 4 to 6 weeks we will be getting the office area partitioned off so there is privacy for all.

- If you or you know of anyone that could make use of this area for a mere $15 per day get them to go to the website and book.

Some feedback from early users of the office space.

"The space today was brilliant!!!. I got a mountain of work done, the aircon was devine, the space was lively and clean - and so quiet. Excited to use this space more"
